1942 CRITICAL YEAR FOR CANADA

Drastic Changes In War Effort Seen

By R. T. RICHARDSON
Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau
OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—Profound changes affecting the character of the Canadian war effort in 1942 are now foreseen as a result of developments in the Pacific arena which are without parallel in any previous stage of this world war or the last war.

On the basis of reliable information available in Ottawa and Washington, it can be predicted now that much of the war planning carried in expert circles in both capitals in recent months will be recast. What Donald Welsh, American plenipotentiary, said in Washington yesterday in equally applicable to Canada, that 1942 is the most critical year, that warfare made this year are worth as many times as much as those planned for 1943, that we must "prevent it from being all over with us."

Striking new developments in Canadian war policy are expected to include:

1.—The Canadian farmer becomes one of the most important factors to Canadian workers and soldiers, and a drive for co-operation grain exporting that of last year will have to be launched with new vigour.

2.—Reorganization of the war effort will probably involve retention of the fourth division at home longer than anticipated a few weeks ago, and rapid expansion of Pacific coast defence forces will be underaken.

3.—Construction of the Alaska highway, probably using the inside route from Peace River railhead, has become a vital part of United Nations strategy and is expected to be launched shortly.

For the first time in this war, Canadian farmers, especially those in the great grain belt of the West, are expected to be under pressure to produce at demand. Draft stalling change in the war picture is the result of several factors arising together. North American sup-

Army Sent To Batavia

By The British

Japanese parachute troops struck into southern Sumatra today in a menacing
thrust toward Java, the heart of the rich Netherlands East Indies, while in the siege of Singapore, Japanese troops claimed they had captured the Seletar naval base on Singapore Island.

Simultaneously an Australian radio broadcast reported that Australian and other British and Empire troops had landed at Batavia and "are taking up positions for the defence of Java."

It seemed clear that although Singapore still holds out, the battle has moved to the main theatre.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(CP)— Batavia—British defenders of Singapore held the city and both of the big reservoirs tonight under incessant Japanese shelling and bombing, grimly slaying off attacks from two directions.

of the Indies was fast developing into the main struggle for the far Pacific theatre.

PIERCE RESISTANCE
Dutch troops from Batavia, the capital of Java, and Japanese parachutists dropped from the skies today to launch an attack toward vital Sumatra, only 270 miles from Batavia.

An N.E.I. communique said defence forces were putting up furious resistance and killing the airborne Japanese troops by the hundreds.

More than 100 Japanese transported to the island.

Hundreds Of Airplanes Now Reach Burma

By KARL KNEUKAUF

Copied from The British United Press and The Edmonton Bulletin.

KINNING, Burma, Feb. 14.— Travelers from Burma said today that hundreds of airplanes were being sent to the American volunteer group in the Air Force defenders of the Burma
Road.

It was in Burma and on the Burma Road to China was described

EXCLUSIVE
as difficult due to extensive military movements resulting from the movement of Chinese troops to aid in defence of Burma and the dispatch of reinforcements to the fighting front.

Thugan dispatches this week said that the Chinese had been in some action in Burma and were expected to play an important role there henceforth. Yesterday Changkung dispatches said that American flying fortresses were among the air reinforcements reaching the fighting front.

"A huge number of B.A.P. planes and pilots have arrived," one traveller from Rangoon said.

when he said there must be a mighty and consolidated effort made against the enemy without delay and that the Allies must strike at the critical hour.

Political experts said a shakeup of the cabinet was indicated although it was not believed that Churchill's overthrow was likely.

INTEREST IN CRIPPS

Greatest interest centered on Sir Stafford Cripps, resigned ambassador to Moscow, who has made a most interesting impression on the public recently and has been talked of as a candidate for prime minister.

The escape of a German fleet past the English coast, plus the desperate situation at Singapore, brought even the ultra-conservative Times into the chorus demanding the resignation of Churchill's government, if not that of Churchill himself.

So bitter was the criticism that some thought Churchill would have to make a vigorous statement to shore even himself of the continued confidence of the House of Commons.

WEED OUT WEAKLINGS

The general demand was for a merciless shakeup in the cabinet to weed out the weak men and especially those who had any remaining taint of appeasement, and for Churchill to delegate real authority, especially in matters of military and naval strategy, to subordinate.

For months Churchill, largely out of loyalty to his colleagues, had tried to keep the cabinet together, but it appeared now that he must give in.

The tone of comment is shown by these excerpts from editorials:

BLUEPRINT FOR BUILDING ARMY OF 7,000,000

Two years of preparation and two months of war find the United States bristling with military installations. They run the full gamut from big coastal battery to lowly ordnance warehouse. All playing some role in America's historic war effort. The location and activities of many are hush-hush; mere mention of a few is expressly forbidden. The remainder, among them the vital military training camps, are so well-known that no military purpose is served in attempting to keep them secret.

It is in the training camps that Uncle Sam is building his tremendous army, a force which will pyramid at least 7,000,000 men. More than half the number will be in khaki this year, requiring an all-out construction program to prepare accommodations. Nine new camps, each to house 50,000 men, are being built, and all others expanded. Five temporary tent camps will help shoulder the load in immediate months to come.

Inducted into the service, each new soldier finds himself in an army organization structure streamlined to meet the exigencies of blitz warfare. His training center is one of nine corps areas (unless he is an airman). The corps area belongs to a field army. Over all is a general headquarters at Washington, above it the President.

The structure is designed to carry out orders from top to bottom with the greatest speed and efficiency. If the new soldier is destined to become an airman, he is assigned to one of four air armies. The location of his training center will be among the things he is asked not to talk about. He will be part of a 42 air force of 1,000,000 men; a cog in an air arm that eventually will include twice that number.

The complete machine, from President down to rookie, operates to generate vast power. On it depends quick establishment of the offensive armies with which the war eventually will be won.

views of the U.S. Navy are getting wide radio and press publicity in this country. His predictions of the war have been consistently bullish, but the fact remains that many M.P.'s now want to know exactly what the state of defenses are in B.C. Hebrun's fatal twist.

A person in good health can lose one-third of his blood without any fatal twist.

Australia Has Hopes Of Help From America

1941 he was firmly convinced that geographical and strategic factors would give Australia's only hope against invasion.

AIR STRENGTH LOW
"Now, after 10 years fighting for power I have come to the head of the Australian government and I find myself with an alarming low air strength at my command," he said.

He said: "I fully realize the magnitude of America's difficulties and no Australian would dare to presume to tell Americans what she should do anywhere in the whole world. What she has done has earned the undying gratitude of democratic people of the whole world. What she will do in the future will be the overwhelming factor in the war."

ANAS-AMERICAN AIR POWER
"Anas-American air power can save Australia and by that means strengthen America's position, not only in the Pacific but in the Atlantic, too," he continued.

"The Americans know about our Anas. There are no secrets for me to praise them for what they have done so far."

Curtin is plain spoken, but he seldom speaks unless he has something to say. He is a realist, almost to the point of fatalism. These days he spends 14 hours a day in his office.

EXAMPLE OF ABILITY
The latest example of his ability to take a decisive stand is his recently help Japan enter the Pacific, which brings manpower, wages, prices and investments under strict governmental control.

I asked Curtin how it felt, as a Labor leader, to put a plan so widely affecting labor, into action. "Australian workers have the right to give and they are giving through Dr. Curtin's plan," he said.

"The man dealing in stocks and bonds will be brought to the same plane as the worker in overalls. Even though we have been seeking to improve wages and living conditions, these improvements must temporarily cease."

"This is the man who is leading Australia 7,000,000 today. Many believe that if he had been prime minister years ago the country's position today would be more comfortable."

Women Support Bond Purchases
More than 800 women, representing many charitable organizations, including 150 members of I.O.E. chapters, will take an active part in the drive to make Ladies Day next Monday, a successful operation to this city's three weeks campaign to oversubscribe its quota in the Second Victory Loan.

As many housewives as possible will be encouraged to arrange their purchases for Monday.

All prospective purchasers, especially women and children, are urged to buy bonds on Monday to give the drive an irresistible impetus on its first day. Purchases on the installment plan may be arranged in cases where outright purchase is not convenient.

high command recently selected for transfer to armored status. The fourth division is also slated to move to Britain to bring up Canadian strength, there in order to form a full two-corps army, replacing the existing corps.

Two other matters of grave importance figure in discussion of the Pacific Coast, the problem of Canadian representation on the new Pacific council at Washington, and the problem of uniting of command among army, naval and air forces operating in the B.C. defence sector.

GET UP TO 3000 MORE MILES FROM YOUR PRESENT TIRES

Your Union Oil Dealer knows how to shift your wheels around and add miles to the life of the tires... Takes only 25 minutes... Costs only a nominal sum

1. Tire experts say that if your tires are not too badly worn already, you can get up to 3,000 more miles out of a set by shifting them around so they'll wear evenly.

2. The ideal time to do this is every 5,000 miles. But even if you've driven your present tires farther than that, it's never too late to save a few miles of wear.

3. Union Oil Minute Men have set up a special service to shift wheels for you quickly and economically. They'll run your car on the hoist, inspect the tire wear, shift them the way the wear indicates they should be shifted, and return your car in 25 minutes! The charge for shifting all 4 wheels is only a trifle.

4. Why not drive into the nearest Union Oil station and take advantage of this special wheel-shifting service today? It's another feature of Union Oil's campaign to help you make your car last longer. Incidentally, if you have an order for the ration board for new tires, let us take care of your requirements.

While the districts abound with game at the present time, lives of many of the animals are being increasingly endangered by a sharp rise in the number of cougars who stalk small game for food, according to a report submitted at the annual meeting of the Clearwater Fish and Game Association here.

Henry Steffen reported that since action was taken against beaver poachers on the Clearwater river, the industrious little animals have again returned to the district and are multiplying rapidly. He reported also that moose and elk seem to be on the increase, while many squirrels and rabbits are plentiful.

Rabbit and squirrel hunting is giving many persons a good living, it was reported.

Buying Made Easy

The Victory bonds which go on sale on Monday are divided into three classes. One type of bond will mature in 1½ years, and draw interest at the rate of 1½ per cent. The second type is to run for six years, with interest at two per cent. The third class are 12-year bonds, drawing 3 per cent. These longer term bonds will be redeemed when mature, at 101, making the yield 3.07 per cent.

This arrangement is designed to accommodate investors of all classes, those who can tie up funds for a long time and those who must have their money available soon. Bonds are to be offered in denominations ranging from $50 upward. They can be bought cash down or on the instalment plan.
Plans have been made whereby the banks will assist in the sale of the bonds by more than their immediate cash resources will permit. Employees may go in together and buy jointly, in which case the banks will also assist.

Practically every person who is earning money is thus put in position to buy a bond, thereby helping to finance the war effort. The Government providing a "back log" of buying power for his or her use in future. The appeal is to the general public, and the opportunity to invest could not well be made broader. The bonds should be distributed widely, and the wider the better.

By Himself Alone

It is to be hoped our citizens understand Canada's constitutional setup well enough to know that Premier Heppburn of Ontario does not speak for the Government or people of this Dominion any more than the speaking member of a party in the legislature speaks for President Roosevelt or the people of the United States. Also that they are sufficiently intelligent to know that the Premier's personal views on international events to know that Mr.
Heppburn has just emerged from a federal by-election contest, in which he failed to participate in the election, and from the bruises and blisters resulting from a sound spanking at the hands of the electors.

Canadians of all parties will hasten to apologize, through whatever channels may be open to them, for the Heppburn references to the United States navy, references equally distinguished by bad taste and by profound ignorance of the elementary principles of maritime war. Fendling the United States people of Ontario will have an opportunity to retire this exhibitionist from public life, or on the side of the line only regret with humiliation that the head of a provincial government should be willing to poison the relations between Canada and the United States.
The last Prime Minister King should receive his due measure of credit for helping to maintain these relations on the present happy basis.

The navy of the United States needs no defence against babblers. But it is absolutely essential that the Canadian public should understand Mr. Heppburn speaks for nobody but himself, and only as a private citizen, when he makes statements of inefficiency of the forces and the strategy of their commanders.

The Battle Off Dover

Shifting the Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Prinz Eugen from Brest to a German port was one of the most daring feats undertaken by the naval forces of any country during the course of the war. It was possible because of misty weather which made it almost invisible to the eyes of the English coast, and because ample air protection was provided, together with a heavy escort of anti-aircraft ships, destroyers to mine-sweepers. The direct route was taken, for the obvious reason that the British battle fleet was less likely to be encountered in the Channel than in waters north of the British Isles. These factors do not suffice, however, to explain the success of the feat, but they rob it of any semblance of the impossible. Admiral Raeder rightly conjectured that the British would be the saviour in the circumstances. These circumstances considered, the risk was no greater than that undertaken by German cruisers which in the former Great War bombed ports on the east coast of England, on the chance of being cut off from their bases.

Whether the much-bombed vessels will be any safer at Emden than they were at Brest need not be discussed.
They will be equally within range of British bombers, and the conditions may be less favorable for them. For nearly a whole year the three warships have been held in the French port useless, a port admirably located as a base for action on shipping off the coast.
They were removed apparently because there was no prospect that they could be employed in raiding tactics which would have been of any use in their absence the bombers will pay less attention to Brest, and allow the submarine based there a better chance to operate. The change of location does not take the ships out of the blockade zone, but further into it. Short of plans to challenge Britain's basement in an all-out engagement, they can do as little damage where they now are as they would two days ago.

At Brest the three fugitives were targeted in 110 air raids. But it is only claimed that two hits were scored on any of them. The port lies in a cup-like depression where dive-bombing was not possible. The moral seems to be that in dropping bombs from a great height the chances of missing a hit are about one in fifty on a target no larger than a battleship.

The disturbing fact in the battle off
Dover is that we lost 42 planes for 15 of the enemy planes shot down, without destroying any of the fugitive warships. These were protected not by any "cannon" but by one above another, involving the use of probably some hundreds of fighting planes. The loss of the planes was a disaster. The British have has evidently not been overlooked at Berlin, and the vulnerability of a battleship without air protection was fully recognized.

Her Goering is said to have settled the fate of the ships who in Axis circles in Libya. According to reports he journeyed to Rome to tell Signor Mussolini that the ships were to be destroyed. He was in the line-up, and General Rommel is the head of the work. As Hitler is now the real boss of the Axis, he will not only understand the significance of the change in Libya, but will know just how Barico feels about it.

German and French industrialists are said to be anxious to restore peace among the Axis powers, because if Japan gets control of the resources of the East India, Japanese goods will flood the world markets at prices western markets cannot compete with.

authentic source.

In short, Spain faces an extremely critical situation. Germany has become the directing power behind the Spanish government, and the Spanish government
is in a state of complete discontent and hatred that has reached
into the smallest towns and villages.
This picture comes from a completely
authentic source.

Summary
Following are the chief points, in summary:

1.—Widespread food shortage because particular food products shipped to Spain from South America, particularly wheat and corn, are being hoarded by ships and sent to Germany and Italy or moved in camouflaged trucks across the border into Germany.

2.—German domination of the Spanish government is apparent, even in the most remote districts.

3.—The entry of Spain as an active participant against the Axis powers is impossible, due to the lack of supplies and the misery
and death of all classes of the population in Spain feel that the country will
be thrown into anarchy.

4.—Continued shipping is being operated by Germany under the Spanish flag.

5.—Germany and Italy have fortified
the Canary Islands, as well as Morocco.

Is Spain Able To Fight

Information Indicates That Revolt Against Franco Not An Impossibility

By HAROLD L. WEIR

Various events have made it clear that Hitler has resumed his warring of Spain.
It is undoubtedly part of the German strategy to secure the right to march through Spain to Gibraltar and the Mediterranean, even more important under present circumstances, to walk through Spain into Portugal and thus provide a jumping off place for attacks on the North American continent.

In view of this likelihood, it is not surprising that the situation in Spain is being watched by the entire world. Just what part Spain is capable of playing in the coming war is a matter of the war.

It seems certain that Spain is in no position to do any actual fighting.
The matter of actual fighting, under the crushing yoke of German domination, is a state of misery, suffering so much from hunger, persecution and repression that a revolt against the German rule of France and Spain is momentarily expected.

Conditions Desperate
Information coming from Spain, from privately from Spain, from exceedingly reliable sources, reveals these facts:

1.—German seizures of food produced in Spain or imported from South America have caused intense hunger throughout the entire country, especially in the industrial areas.

2.—The situation is one of acute. Morale was never lower.

3.—Girls as young as 14 have been driven to prostitution by near-starvation. Mass executions are common. Invasion by the Principles of Wales and the Republic
Spaniards as a whole.

In short, Spain faces an extremely critical situation. Germany has become the
directing power behind the Spanish government, and the Spanish government
is in a state of complete dis-
content and hatred that has reached
into the smallest towns and villages.
This picture comes from a completely
authentic source.

Summary
Following are the chief points, in summary:

1.—Widespread food shortage because particular food products shipped to Spain from South America, particularly
wheat and corn, are being hoarded by
ships and sent to Germany and Italy or
moved in camouflaged trucks across the border into Germany.

2.—German domination of the Spanish
government is apparent, even in the most
remote districts.

3.—The entry of Spain as an active participant against the Axis powers is impossible, due to the lack of supplies and the misery
and death of all classes of the population in Spain feel that the country will
be thrown into anarchy.

4.—Continued shipping is being operated by Germany under the Spanish flag.

5.—Germany and Italy have fortified
the Canary Islands, as well as Morocco.

with gun batteries every 50 metres along

In general, the people of Spain would welcome an invasion by the Allies and a majority would side with the invaders.

There is little work to be obtained anywhere in Spain and little desire to work.

Strained against Germany and the present Spanish regime increases daily.

Disorder
Sufts cost from 500 to 600 pesetas and a pair of shoes costs from 150 to 200 pesetas.
Fish is plentiful but expensive. In Barcelona, salmon sardines cost from four to five pesetas.

Industry is paralyzed to a large extent.
Mines are producing but little coal because the miners have insufficient food to keep them strong. Steamship companies have been forced to pay heavy subsidies—no return. Contraband runners are flourishing.

Despite severe punishment, prostitution
is rampant in many cities (particularly Barcelona) bands of "teenage girls, some as young as 14 and 15,
are in the streets, half mad from hunger.
Women lawbreakers have their heads shaved or are thrown into overcrowded jails, where persecution and execution are the order of the day.

To quote one section of the letter received here:

"In the conditions are so crowded that prisoners have to stand up to sleep, jammed one against the other. . . . Many are dying of starvation. . . . In the north of Spain, in Sebastian and in other sections many in-dressed children perished because of the wounds received in Russia. . . . Bread is scarce and of poor quality. . . . Standing in the breadlines and screaming from hunger."

From another section:

"Every day the trains are packed with women and young people going from town to town in search of food. Food is rationed unequally and this has resulted in great quantities of food being hoarded from Argentina, only corn is permitted by the Government to remain in Spain. Wheat and other foodstuffs are being hoarded in great quantities. . . . Tuberculosis is spreading throughout the entire country. . . . The Falange does not enjoy the confidence of the people as heretofore and its influence and power are diminishing."

Occupation
All this would seem to indicate that Hitler could count on little active assistance from Spain. . . . It is not clear that he could count on Spain to help him to occupy Spain.

Another element arises out of this situation. . . . It is not clear that he could count on Spain to help him to occupy Spain.

He may find it necessary to occupy that country for not only a reason to prevent a popular rebellion which would lead to the overthrow of the present regime.
He was forced to take that step in Italy.
He may be forced to take it in Spain.

It is inevitable that Spain will begin to play a greater role in the coming war. . . . At least in the passive role of providing a highway through which Hitler may advance his armies into the heart of Europe.

mary:

Major And Minor Notes

By John Oliver

JOHN OLIVER

RE-ORGANIZATION of the St. David's Male Voice Choir has been completed and it is now going strong under the leadership of W. J. Jones, well known baritone. This choir was organized about 15 years ago, under the leadership of George Williams, who was succeeded later by his brother, Jack Williams. Mr. Williams resigned and the choir was passed to his friend, W. J. Jones, who has had extensive experience with choral groups in this country and the United States. St. David's choir has won for itself a well-merited reputation in this city as a distinct choir. The executive is confident that under Mr. Jones, the high standards in past years will be fully maintained. The choir will appear, since its re-organization at Westminster, Horse Hills and Looms and on each occasion the reception has been most cordial.

These appearances were in support of the Red Cross and Victory Loan committees. The choir will sing at the Calder United church at 8 p.m. Monday and next month, it is expected a concert will be given in aid of replacing the male voices lost in the Metropolitan United church fire on Jan. 1. Several of the singers are original members of the choir. Frank Smith is president of the choir and H. L. Shutt is honorary secretary.

The Metropolitan United church choir will give a concert at Knox United church at 8:15 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 20. Purpose of the concert is to raise funds to replace music and organs lost in the fire which destroyed the church on Jan. 1. Several of the members will be the full choir, as well as soloists and quartets. The choir is rehearsing intensively for several weeks in preparation for the concert.

The Edmonton Piano Class Teachers' Association met recently at the Y.W.C.A. with Mrs. C. O. Hallen in the chair. He directed a discussion on theoretical work and rhythm in the composition. There was a large attendance.

Egon Grapentin, young city concert violinist and an Edmonton Civic Opera Society scholarship winner, will appear in concert at Central Baptist church on Friday, Feb. 20 at 8 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 20. At the piano, will be Mrs. Drummond Hargreaves. Grapentin has chosen the following program: The Devil's Trill, Tartin; Konig's Concerto in E Minor; Chopin's No. 6, Mendelssohn, Allegro, most of the Konig's; Andante and Allegro molto vivace; Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso, Saint-Saens; Malaguna, Sarasate; Nocturne, Op. 27, No. 2, Chopin; Walse, Op. 64, No. 6, de Folia-Kochanska; Flight of the Bumble Bee, Rimsky-Korsakov; Chopin, No. 13, Paganini-Krieger; and La Vida Breve, Spanish Dance, de Falla-Krieger.

Mrs. Ernest Meador, manager of the Women's Musical Club, celebrated Series of Concerts, states that arrangements will be advanced for the next concert, to be given on March 11 by Orestes Parnell, British violinist. Mrs. Meador will be at her office at Heintzman and Company on March 11 and thereafter. The concert by Gladys Swarthbird, mezzo soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Association has been postponed until April 30. Previous announcement on this has been confirmed by Mrs. Meador.

Farmer Wins Supreme Court Damage Action

Special and general damages totalling $6,000 were awarded in Supreme court on Friday by Justice T. M. Tweedie to Felix Rybak, Tawainaw district farmer, against Rhinhardt Steller and George Crosswell, carrying on business as Steller and Crosswell, and William Chambers, an employer, for injuries received in a motor truck and team and wagon collision on the Edmonton-Alberta highway near quarter mile north of Tawainaw on Feb. 16, 1939.

The court held that negligence of the defendant contributed 60 per cent to the accident, and that of the plaintiff 40 per cent. In consequence the court awarded to the plaintiff will be reduced in the ratio in which his negligence contributed to the collision.

Evidence at the trial disclosed that the defendant, through their servant, William Chambers, operated a truck and trailer heavily loaded with lumber at an excessive speed. The defendant suffered very serious injuries which resulted in a permanent disability.

P. G. Davies, K.C., Clyde, appeared for the plaintiff, with J. E. Brownlie, K.C., and V. R. Baldwin, for the defendants.

Clarification Living Bonus, Wages Given

Clarification of wages and the Cost of Living Bonus, as at Feb. 15, is most important to employers and employees. It was stated by Edmonton Chamber of Commerce officials on Saturday. Many employers have been promising increased wages, or the establishment of a bonus, to their employees, on Feb. 15, but it has not been permitted to do so according to the regulations received here.

It is expected officials stated, that if many firms anticipated adjustment to do make them effective prior to Feb. 15, there will be a good deal of disappointment to employees who have been anticipating an increase, but the employers will have no alternative but to abide by the ruling of the National War Labor Board, which states: "The wage paid to employees on Feb. 15, becomes the basic wage, until a further order is issued respecting increase or decrease in the cost of living bonus. This order will not be issued until May 15. The regulation respecting the rate of the rate at Feb. 15 is mandatory."

Many employers have expressed desire to increase wages in line with increased living costs on Feb. 15. If these employers have not made the adjustment before

Bill Cunningham's Column

BILL TAKES A NIBBLE AT HAND THAT FEELS HIM
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Fanny may be surprised I settled back in New York to get my first look at the American League baseball movie the other night, and how close it starts and close but with that same "Play Ball" I wrote three or four years ago for a radio program. That's the chance to be copyrighted in my name, in my exclusive property and nobody ever asked me if they could borrow it. What do you do in a case such as that, Mendon? Yeah, I know, but how much sense does it make for a sports writer to sue his own article and "butters" the bugs at least for the time being? I would have to sue the whole world for the use of the word "butters"...

Photos of Joe Louis in uniform make it look as if the fire in front of it very much, but the picture was exactly as it is in the front of the camera. Let's get going. American Never mind the drive and drabs of soldiers being sent here and there, those A.E.F.s in France and all the busy rest of it. Let's get out there and do something for McArthur, and then the All-Americans who're holding that line with him. That's where the fighting is. What're we waiting for?...

SHEDDING THEIR PRISTINE SHAKKLES

Strangler Lewis, the wrestler, I back on the pulpit again. He must be 150... We must see the old time bullwhip of the glittering underbelly winter track meets. Some have excelled some, but he's not held, but something's missing. May be it's the great state of yesterday. Harvard, Yale and Princeton in solemn federation assembled have agreed to try everything they have into a full year sports program.

In fact, from our way of looking at it, they have accepted the emergency as an opportunity for shedding most of their pristine shackles. They're going to admit freshmen to varsity teams. They'll no longer postpone football practice until Sept. 15, but each institution will set its own starting date, dependent upon its own problems and conveniences.

If any hesitant institution still will look to the roots of the Ivy League for the answers, there are, and its fresh off the drying press. In 1917, Harvard and Yale cancelled all sports programs completely, the day war was declared, and so I read, but as a member of the Camp Devens eleven under Coach Percy Hargrave, I played twice against Harvard, once at Devens and once in the Stadium. They must have kept some sort of program in operation. Maybe they cancelled their intercollegiate schedules and played only service teams as ours.

JACK DEMPEY

ON QUIET PROGRAM

Jack Dempey is about to blossom forth with a Sports Writers' Radio Quiz program in New York. The old Man's slithering soprano voice mitigated seriously against him on the stage in the squawker, but maybe they are on the edge of him down a zone or two on the air...

They're shooting the first part of the historic picture in the Los Angeles baseball park, and the second part will take in the Pirates' training camp in another California village.

St. Petersburg will probably run a fever over this, for, after getting never spring training anywhere except at New Orleans and later within the palm-bordered Florida midland...

ELECTRIC CURRENT

EXPER NERVOUS

Certain other industries dependent upon electric current are watching the pro and con of the new baseball discussion with partially hated breath. One is the motion picture business. Another is radio. Some inquisitive gent has taken to ask why all the jargon necessary to everything couldn't be saved if radio broadcasting were limited to certain specified periods each day.

Heaven knows, and again I trumpet, that it wouldn't be much of a national service if the listening end anyhow—give up those dreary and apparently endless daytime series of travel and heartbreak news as snap opera. Somebody always dying, or crying, or being killed or having an accident, leaving his sweetheart, his business, or his adoring family in a very bad way.

Disaster always hangs heavy over the head of the righteous and the innocent, and although victory after victory triumphs, the well always comes in or the police invariably arrive just in time. By then, however, the listener is a nervous wreck. That is, if he's listening. If he isn't, there's no point in the dem things anyway...

REFUTES LIEBEL

Ed Frederick Fitzsimmons, the venerable Brooklyn bunter, and walking refutation of that time-honored belief that nobody loves a fat man, is going great guns with his new masterpiece, "How to Live in a Flatbush Field. He's going great guns in fact, the fact that he's not plotting how to knock out a side wall, hire more land, and increase the number of his sales from 24 to 36. Lefty Grove is another number immortal who's a bowling alley martyr.

A lot of the baseball times are already boiling out at 100 springs. Some have been and are expected. This is going to be the end of the elderly gentlemen, and most of them are pretty serious about trying to make it. Cleveland has a new ball is considered well set so far as conception goes. It can field a full complement of solid family men. Every regular has at least two children except Ray, who has only one. But, of course, Cleveland left Feller, which is by no means losing his entire front half...

MAPE LEAFS

Red Canadians

"Maple Leafs" defeated Canadiens 3-1 in last night's City Junior Hockey League game and accordingly increased their lead in the standings to eight points.

The Leafs have led all season and are certain now to finish in first place. They will meet the winner of the semi-final series for the league title.

Leading points-maker for the Leafs last night was Chris Laine, who had one goal and a pair of assists. McPherson and Weaver were the other goal-getters.

Thomas drawing an assist on Chris Laine's goal.

Johnson scored the Canadiens' only goal on a play with Drouin.

Andy Crawford refereed the game.

OVER SEVEN

OVER SOUTH SIDE

Stadium Flyers won 4-2 against South Side in their midweek game on Friday night.

Keith Barry with two, Binkie and O'Connor with one, and the Flyers won the game.

The Flyers and Greene notched the South Side goal.

Canadians Play Clubmen Tonight

Edmonton Athletic Club and Canadians will play a regular City Junior Hockey League game on Friday night.

The game will be held at the club's rink at 119 Street tonight commencing at 8:30.

The Maple Leaf Juniors are billed to clash with the Westsiders tonight in an exhibition game on the Coleman home ice.

Hudson Showing Way In Winnipeg Still Unbeaten

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Gordon Hudson of the Winnipeg Strathcona Club, landed in a sleigher quarters to the dominion championships in 1938 and 1939 Friday night skipped the only undefeated rink in Manitoba's 54th annual championship.

Hudson, who qualified Thursday for this year's Manitoba British Columbia event, winner of which will represent the province in the Macdonald-Brier district at Quebec City next month, ran a string of victories to nine yesterday.

His rink defeated W. Walsh of Winnipeg 12-7 to enter the sixteen of the Kato trophy and advanced to the rights of the Dominion primary event by handing Ken Watson's Strathcona their first setback, 10-6.

Watson, skip of the dominion champions in 1938, qualified earlier for the Brier.

Two other dominion champions, ship rinks, skipped by Leo Johnson and R. J. Gault, both of the Strathcona Club, landed in the sixteen. Johnson, Brier winner in 1934, triumphed 10-6 over the Brier winner of 1931 and also qualified for the British Consols.

Other prominent rinks to enter the British Consols by advancing to the sixteen of Edmonton play included Premier Bracken of Manitoba, and Cam McEwen of Fort William.

Premier Bracken won 11-6 over Earl Ramsey of Winnipeg and McEwen defeated a 12-10 decision over J. H. Wright of Saskatoon, Man.

God... Our Sure Defender

IN TIMES of stress men turn instinctively to God for help. For religious people this is quite a normal phenomenon of the soul. But people who would not call themselves religious are frequently impelled by the same instinct for it is a right and proper impulse. When men are in the grip of circumstances they become aware of the need of a power greater than their own. So they pray to God to look upon their infirmities.

This sense of the need for Divine help is today a common experience shared by all. Danger is a daily companion, for wherever we be in this vast universe it is lurking around us ready to attack and destroy. But man's chief danger comes from within and from his own weakness.

Indeed, the main threat is against man's inner life and his worst foes are hatred, despair, depression and paralysis. Man's spiritual needs vary just as men vary, but there are needs which are common to all, the ability to conquer fear, to always have a calm and balanced mind, to be made to suffer without becoming embittered, to wrestle against evil without hatred, and to look forward with the confidence and faith to a better age to come.

And so it is in the realm of the spirit that God's help comes to each of us. It is not by the taking away of all barriers to our progress nor by the making of our tasks equal to our strength, but rather God gives us greater strength for the greater need. The words of the Psalmist are very true, "My help cometh from the Lord." It has been in suffering, disappointment and loss that Christians have found a serenity and a courage which has made them more than conquerors.

This helps comes through the co-operation of Man with God. And the only real and true way is by prayer. For through prayer the inner recesses of the soul are laid bare and we can converse with our Heavenly Father as friend to friend. God's spirit reinvigorates our souls so that we can meet all life's emergencies without tripping over.

Words in an act of Corporate Prayer and through it the soul is enriched, religious experience is deepened and we are fortified against the changes and chances of this mortal life. As the Prophet Isaiah very aptly put it, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

No answer comes to those who pray, they rely stand still. And wait for some to roll away at God's command. He will not break the binding cords upon us laid. If we depend on pleading words, and do not act. When hands are idle, words are vain to move the stone. An abiding anger would descend to work alone. That, he who prays and is strong in faith and deed, And loileth earnestly, ere long, He will succeed.

Steady Rate Is Maintained In Recruiting

The figures indicate but little change in the brisk rate of signing up for active service here. In the first 13 days of January 172 men joined up out of 284 that presented themselves for examination.

On Friday the average of acceptance was exceptionally good with 16 passing medical boards out of 20 who were examined.

A party of 24 men from Grande Prairie basic training centre were in Edmonton for a short period Saturday. These men who have completed the two-month basic training period are on the way to Winnipeg.

Big Aircraft Is Obtained For Blackout Test

Through the courtesy of Yukon-Southern Air Transport Ltd. the Air Raid Precautions Committee has obtained the services of a 10-passenger plane to be used during the blackout Sunday evening.

The plane will carry broadcasting equipment with a commentator from one of the city radio stations, a photographer, two newspapermen and representatives of the Air Raid Precautions committee and will fly above the city during the five-minute blackout commencing at 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

AIR COMMENTATOR
All residents are advised to keep their radios tuned to hear comments from the plane and from other commentators stationed on all buildings.

The committee has made a special appeal to proprietors of downtown business places to make arrangements for turning off display windows and neon lights immediately prior to the 9:30 alarm.

The alarm will be sounded at 9:30 sharp and will last for two minutes. After a three-minute interval, a two-second all-clear signal will be given.

Main purpose of the plane tour is to detect any evidence of improper blackout preparations. The committee advises that light can easily be seen through the ordinary cream-colored window blind. It is suggested that in such cases the lights should be turned out. The importance of checking up on possible escape of light through small apertures around window blinds or other openings cannot be under-estimated.

Won't You Be My Valentine?

In Valentine's Day Celebrations

By FRANCOISE MARTIN
Roses and flowers are still clear of rationing, and so this Valentine's Day, is one fine day for romantics, sentimentalists and those individuals who prefer to dish out the amusing and unfattering variety of greetings.

The tradition has been traced to a terrific degree since the early Roman days, when the maidens placed their names in a box from which they were drawn by the unattached men-about-town. These billets in the history of love were said to be the first valentines, but it is difficult to know whether the theory comes to a "reliable source" because there are several versions of how the tradition started.

Christian leaders of the time named the occasion after St. Valentine.

BLACKOUT TEST ON SUNDAY

City At Alert For Opening Second Victory Loan Drive

Officials Confidential Oversubscription Of Issues At Early Date

Everything is in readiness for the opening "gun" that will mark the commencement of Edmonton's participation in Canada's Second Victory Loan. Activity gets under way at 9 a.m. Monday, but the "prolinary barrage" will be released at 9:30 p.m. Sunday in the form of sirens and whistles to warn residents of their first blackout.

The blackout will officially usher in the three-week campaign during which northern Alberta canvassers and loan officers will be endeavoring to oversubscribe the quota officially set for the 35,300 units.

Announced by Hon. J. L. Helly, minister of finance, on Dec. 9, when he said the war in the Pacific had increased the Dominion's financial requirements, the loan is larger and earlier than at first contemplated.

PRELIMINARY DATA
The tremendous amount of preparation work necessary to set the national machinery in motion, was undertaken with such enthusiasm that the bill as well as in Alberta, across Canada every little detail has been attended to.

branches of the intricate setup is turned up and primed for the opening hour on Monday.

Officials admit that in spite of unprecedented co-operation from Dominion provincial and municipal authorities and individuals, the preparations could not possibly have been completed within the short space of nine weeks, but the Dominion government co-ordinated the efforts of the personnel in charge of last year's Victory Loan drive, and the standing committee of the national war savings plan officials stated.

These two organizations have been merged into the national war finance committee and their first effort as a co-ordinated body is the forthcoming Second Victory Loan drive.

National quotas for the loan have been set at $600,000,000. There are 15 per cent. loans that mature after 21 years; a 15-year loan maturing March 1, 1948, and bearing a coupon of 2 1/2 per cent, and a 15-year loan bearing interest at 3 per cent.

VARIOUS DENOMINATIONS
The bonds will be offered in denominations ranging from $50 up to $25,000, bearing interest at 10 per cent. from March 1. They will be available either for immediate payment in full, or on installment plan for those who do not have savings and wish to purchase it out of income.

The installment plan asks for a down payment of 10 per cent. of the bond value, and 15, 20, 20, and 20 per cent. payments to be made at monthly intervals commencing April 15. Accrued interest to be paid with the last installment.

Quotas set for last year's campaign were used as a basis of computing quotas for each unit this year. Adjustments, according to savings and business turnover within the unit concerned, were made.

This is the fourth loan to which Canadian people are being asked to subscribe since war broke out. The first, in January, 1940, set at trail appealed to managers of firms to co-operate and assist in organizing the campaign among the employees in their respective firms.

Edmonton has been placed on every light stand along the busier portion of the city streets and special programs for Monday and Tuesday have been arranged.

Monday is designated as "Ladies' Day." His Majesty's forces, men and women, will be asked to purchase bonds and various sources. Here are some representative remarks drawing attention to the advantages of supporting the loan in a practical way.

HIS HONOR, L. G. J. C. BOWEN:
"I am glad the motto of modern civilization is creeping nearer our Canadian shores. In increasing measure we are strengthening all the material forces of the nation to meet the day of destiny when we shall strike the final blow for victory."

Today a call comes for the country to mobilize $600,000,000. In war is every hour of crisis, when the duty of duty is clear, immediate action is not only the watchword, but the unqualified duty of every loyal citizen.

Albertans are never behind any part of Canada in responding to the call of patriotism and service. In this financial appeal of the National Government it should like to see Alberta subscribe its quota in record time.

Premier William Aberhart:
The Canadian Government is launching Monday next, on a second Victory Loan and calling on all Canadian citizens to support it. I feel confident that the people of Alberta will do their part in this as in all the rest of Canada's war activities. The present grim crisis in world affairs calls for the utmost of which each freedom loving individual is capable.

His Worship Mayor John W. Fry:
Monday, February 16, marks the opening of Canada's Second Victory Loan drive. The rapid spread of the war and its serious threat should bring home very forcibly to all Canadians the need for even greater effort and some real sacrifice on the part of all of us who are gainfully employed.

It is up to Canada's civilian population to furnish the means for the production of new airplanes, tanks, guns and ammunition, thereby overcoming the advantage that the enemy enjoys to achieve the initial success.

Edmonton is one of the most progressive cities in Canada. Let us be the first Canadian city to reach our objective.

The Right Reverend W. F. Barlow, Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Edmonton, said it is necessary to convince itself, to convince others, to convince the world, that we are all united in this war and above all to convince the enemy that we are not going to give up.

Edmonton is one of the most progressive cities in Canada. Let us be the first Canadian city to reach our objective.

His Grace, Archbishop J. H. Macdonald, of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Edmonton, said that the Government has asked us for freedom to help defend our freedom. The situation is grave for the simple reason that we are all united in this war and above all to convince the world, that we are not going to give up.

Rev. David Young, president, Edmonton Ministerial Association, said the second time the Canadian government has appealed to the Christian churches of the land to participate in the appeal being made to the public for a Victory Loan, and the ministers of this city are wholeheartedly responding to this call. They will do all in their power and encourage subscriptions on the part of the citizens, and will endeavor through special services to remind men and women of the great issue in this struggle which makes us one. When everything is at stake—and everything is at stake, business, homes, money is the least our government has to lose.

H. M. E. Evans, vice-chairman for North Alberta, for the approval of the Victory Loan, a splendid organization has built itself up throughout North Alberta. The new War Finance Committee is combining what were formerly War Savings and War Loan Committees, providing a great advantage. As a result, for example, the information has been given to Mr. Ray Staples as Chairman of the Edmonton War Finance Committee. Similarly the eighty odd unit and branch committees in our territory have, as Chairman or members, all who were formerly prominent in both organizations.

WORKERS UNITED
So now all these willing workers are united in the job. It may be a bit of a tough job especially in the sections which have had the worst luck with their crops but all realize that there are far tougher jobs scattered over the globe this year. It is this realization which is putting the earnestness in to the present campaign.

We should like to emphasize that more than ever objectives must be achieved by a great multitude of subscribers to the Loan. Many have already invested the bulk of their savings, cannot help themselves to as much more. There must be many new subscribers and all must know that subscriptions and saving to lend to Canada is merely enlightened selfishness.

All of our divisional unit organizers are bringing in gratifying reports of the progress of the Campaign. People are determined to overcome all difficulties to make the Loan an outstanding success.

R. E. Staples, chairman, Edmonton War Finance Committee, preliminary to the opening of the Second Victory Loan campaign, much valuable work has been done.

Alfred Farniss, secretary, Edmonton Trades and Labor Council, said that the government of Canada, through the Finance Minister, has sent out a call to all citizens to contribute their share to the war effort. It is the duty of every citizen to respond to this call. The government of Canada has asked all citizens of Canada to contribute to the war effort. Our duty is to respond to this call. The government of Canada has asked all citizens of Canada to contribute to the war effort. Our duty is to respond to this call.

WILL ASSIST
President William Green of the American Federation of Labor has asked the trade unions of the U.S.A. to subscribe a billion dollars toward their victory loan. President Tom Moore of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has asked all trade unions in Canada to support to the utmost extent of their power, the Victory Loan.

STENOGRAPHERS, Typists Needed For Army Corps
Business organizations are being asked to release qualified stenographers or typists between the ages of 21 and 40 for service in the Canadian Women's Army Corps by officers of Military District 12, it was learned Sunday.

It is suggested these women be replaced by married women or men who are physically unfit for military service.

In making the appeal to all business men throughout the province, military officials stated:

drive that is being made at this time by buying War Bonds.

I am sure that the trade unions of Edmonton will do their part in this campaign.

Women Leaving East Training
Largest contingent of R.C.A.F. (Women's Division) recruits yet enlisted here, will leave in the near future for training at Toronto according to Assistant Sector Officer Winifred Kirk.

This large group comprises those who enlisted under the March quota.

There is still need of a large number of experienced cooks, A.S.O. Kirk stated.

Those who enlist for this service will be given three weeks' general training at Toronto and then attend a special school at Guelph for six weeks.

Sea Casualties
LONDON, Feb. 14 (CP)—The admiralty announced last night that five officers and 90 ratings were lost in the sinking of the corvette Gladiolus.

Composer Dies
BRIGLTON, Eng., Feb. 14 (CP)—Felix Powell, composer with his brother of "Pick Up Your Troubles In Your Old Kilt," fatally wounded himself while discomfited, a coroner's verdict disclosed Friday. Powell died Tuesday of a gunshot wound.
